

Clients who are not satisfied with their life and/or experience any symptoms that cause emotional pain or discomfort can benefit from Individual Therapy. Individual Therapy focuses on personal healing and self-growth. A therapist assists to make changes and transform life into being more satisfying.